

CONTENTS

Copyright Corwin 2018

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xi
ABOUT THE AUTHOR	xiii
Introduction	1
PART I. Building a Questioning Classroom Culture	11
1. Kids These Days: Creating Deeper Learning Experiences Framed Around Student Questions	13
2. Designing for Engagement: Strategies for Using Student Questions to Plan Academic Discussions	25
3. Teaching Like Socrates: Composing a Classroom Climate to Encourage Inquiry	37
4. Learning to Listen: Processes to Support Better Thinking Through Focused Attention	55
5. Constructing Trust: Foundational Practices to Build Empathy, Belonging, and a Culture of Thinking	73
PART II. Curating Questions for Use in the Content Areas	85
6. Using Questions in Multiple Disciplines and Grade Levels	95
7. Science	107
8. Math	117
9. Social Studies, Government, and Humanities	127
10. Fine Arts	139
11. Career and Technical Education	151
12. Special Populations	161

PART III. Applying Inquiry to Do Real Work in the Real World	177
13. Using Student Questions for Project Ideas at All Levels	189
PART IV. Using Our Own Questions to Transform Our Practice	203
14. Using Teacher Questions to Guide Staff Meetings and Plan Professional Development	209
APPENDIX: RESOURCES, RECOMMENDED TEXTS, AND RUBRICS	229
REFERENCES	263
INDEX	271